

We're invited !

LMGA TO HOST AUTHOR TOM COYNE

LMGA will be hosting New York Times bestselling author, Tom Coyne, for a special presentation to Landings Club members on September 23rd at 7:00 pm in the Plantation Ballroom. If you were able to attend his presentation at the most recent Savannah Book Festival, you already know how enjoyable this evening will be!

Mr. Coyne (<https://www.tomcoyne.com/>) is the author of the highly-acclaimed golf books, "A Course Called Ireland" and "A Course Called Scotland" and will be visiting us as part of his research for his upcoming book "A Course Called America".

A member's bar, opening at 6:15 pm, will be available prior to and after Mr. Coyne's presentation. Mr. Coyne's presentation will begin at 7:00 pm. He will be available for book-signing following his presentation.

Since we expect this event to sell out quickly, we are opening registration first to LMGA members and their guests. Following that, we will invite LWGA and L9GA membership, followed by (if necessary) the full Landings Club membership.

Attendance will be limited; we encourage you to register as soon as possible.

To register yourself and your guest(s), click on the link below and fill out the form. You will be able to choose attendance only for $10, or you can attend and purchase the Ireland or Scotland book, or both, in paperback edition, for an additional cost of $10 per book. Registration fees and book purchase costs will be charged to your Club account.
